“MUSIC SETS THE MOOD”

JANUARY 10th, 2012

Alan Messenger has shared his passion for music many times over the years at the Phoebe Needles Center. Alan will be joined by David Cannaday, Gene Parker, Marvin Harlow, and James Guilliams!

Alan and his friends will present a variety of music and songs suited for different occasions, but they can be enjoyed on any occasion. Music can uplift, entertain, comfort and inform. Music can make you dance, sing, laugh, cry and hopefully reflect upon life.

Please invite your friends and neighbors to the Center for Lifelong Learning, and bring them along hear some great music and enjoy a morning of fellowship!

Following the music, join us for a delicious lunch! Please make your reservations early as their will be limited seating.
