“THOMAS JEFFERSON: RENAISSANCE MAN OR...”

October 13th, 2020 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Martha Perry will present “Thomas Jefferson: Renaissance Man or...”

Paradox, dilemma, enigma - all names that Thomas Jefferson has been called, along with husband, father, Governor, President, Ambassador, and Sage. Mr. Jefferson’s many interests included gardening, music, horseback riding, agriculture, religion, politics, architecture, science, family, women, education, wine, traveling, and many more. While he said that he only wanted to live on his “little mountain” (Monticello) with his family, he spent many years helping to found this nation. We will cover many aspects of Mr. Jefferson’s long and fascinating life.

Martha Perry has a long interest in Mr. Jefferson and the founding period of our country. Her library holds 75 books about him - biographies, as well as books about most aspects of his life and interests listed above. Martha holds degrees in Bible and Christian Education, Social Work, and an honorary Doctorate in Humane Letters. Her interest in Mr. Jefferson is purely avocational!

Please join us for a great program, fellowship, and invite a friend!
